Answers

General characteristics –

1) The values of outliers are quite distant from the median.
2) Chlorides seems to have maximum number of outliers.
3) Residual sugar, pH, alcohol and quality seem to have the least number of outliers.

Outlier factor – It is inversely proportional to the number of outliers.

General statement – The outliers for a particular attribute seem to cluster.